

This is a detailed topographic map of the Aargau region in Switzerland. The map shows the Aare river flowing through the center, with numerous municipalities labeled, including Rheinfelden, Muri, Zollikofen, and others. The map uses various colors and patterns to represent different geographical features, such as forests (green), water bodies (blue), and built-up areas (grey). The map is oriented with North at the top.